Debby Etz

Debby,
This year is finally coming to an end. What a wonderful summer.
I think the world of you, best of luck in what you do.
Love Jackie

Debby,
It's really been nice getting to know you, Stupid!
Have lots of fun this summer + maybe we'll see each other ~~this~~, (if you're lucky) not really!
Best wishes always to a very nice girl!

Love ya,
Suzanne

Debby,
It's been nice knowing
you. Have fun this summer and maybe I'll see you.
Best of luck to a sweet gal.

Love ya,
Patsy

I'll always remember the serious talks we've had. Thanks for all the help you've given me. I don't know what I would have done without you. I hope we always stay the best of friends or should I say sisters! Best of luck always to you and Jim, as if you needed it. You don't know how lucky you are to have someone like him.

I guess we'll be seeing alot of each other this summer, be good (ha! ha!)

Love ya,
sis (Peggy)

P.S. Take care of Jimmy for me this summer while I'm not - please Remember this weekend - boy have I ever had trouble. The prom will soon be here. We'll have a blast.

Debtors

It's been fun knowing and being friends with you for the past five months or so. At times I don't know what I would have done without you and my little sister, Carol. When Billy and I have our friendly "spats" you were always a big help. I'll never forget your advice when we were stuck up for such a long time. You were always there. Carol, Peggy, you and I sure had fun staying at mine and Carol's house.
What about the night Peggy pitched that rock and made so much noise. Wow!
Maybe we'll have the same fun all over again. Best of luck with Jim!

Love you
- Jay

(I LORE
BILLY SP
MUCH!
SORE
IT LASTS -
I KNOW
IT WILL)

VOLUME XIX

NORTHAMPTON HIGH SCHOOL

Dennis Matheson

A school is not a building; it is not the walls surrounding classrooms and halls. A school is people: the teachers, students, and those who work with them. A school is the enrichment and benefits gained by working together. A school is learning through participation in classes, activities, and sports.

This is our school.

WE THANK YOU!

MRS. NANCY PARKER: teacher of Senior English, sponsor of Senior Class, and director of the Senior Play.

Mrs. Parker, as our teacher of English and sponsor of our class you have helped many of us, through your guidance, to a better understanding of ourselves and our school. Your sense of humor and interest in individuals has meant much to us.

MR. H. P. WESCOTT: teacher, sponsor of Senior Class, and coach.

Mr. Wescott, we do appreciate your dedication and devotion to the youth of our school and your ability to work with all students, helping them to solve their problems.

EIGHTH GRADE PARTY

PREPARATION: Mr. Timm supervises as A. C. Ward, Suellen Prince, and Ginny Charnock move tables and chairs from lunchroom for party.

PARTICIPATION: Linda Fowler, Danny Abbott, Howard Turner, Nan Tankard, and others enjoy "THE PARTY."

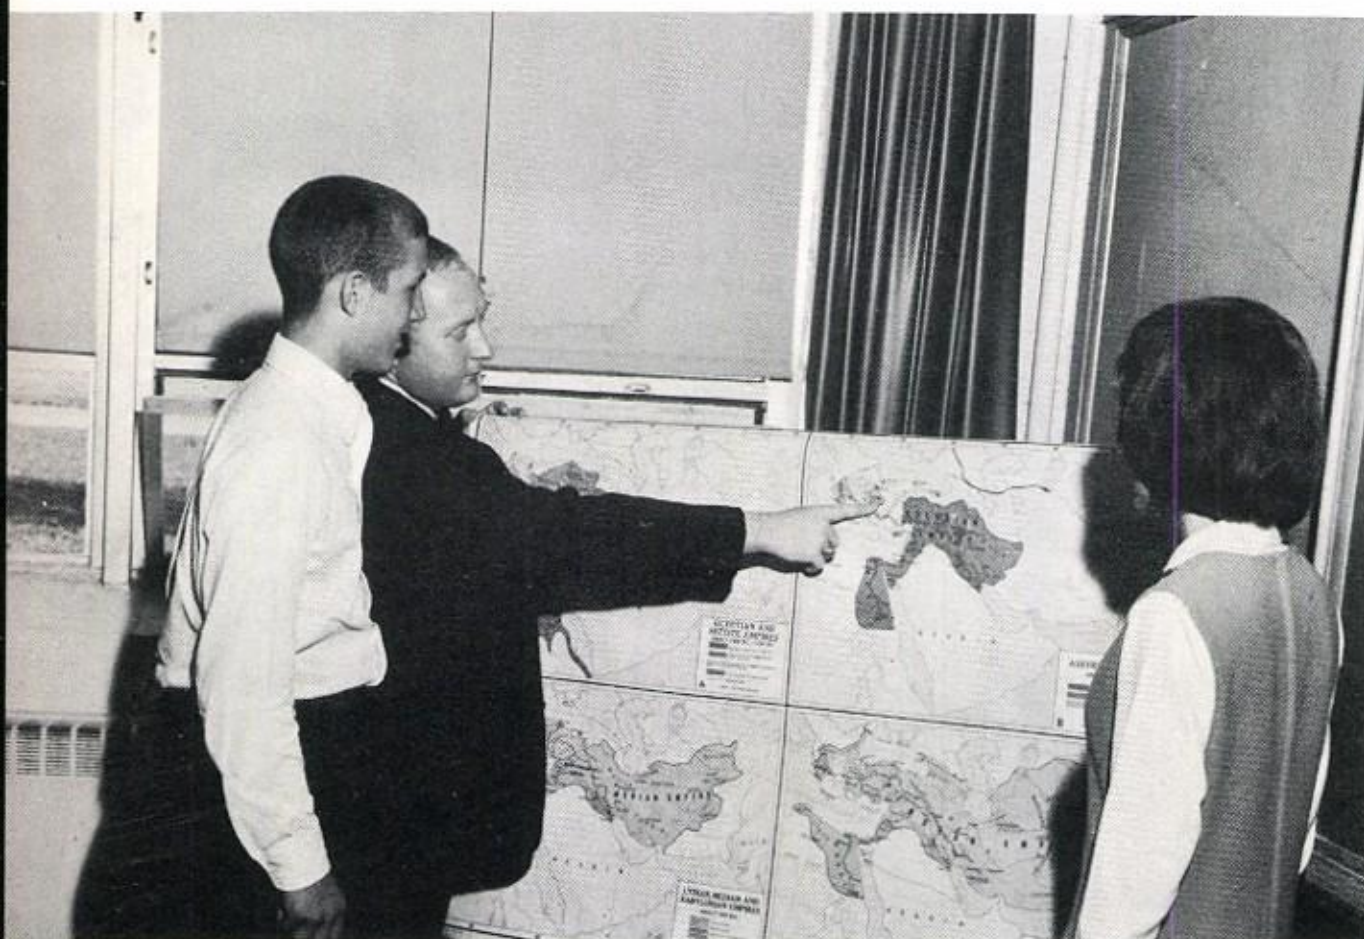

Learning through Doing

CLASSES

ENGLISH 10. Reading is a vital part of any English program. Rita Smith, Jimmy Payne, Al Shreaves, and Florence Fitchett discuss books with Mrs. Holland.

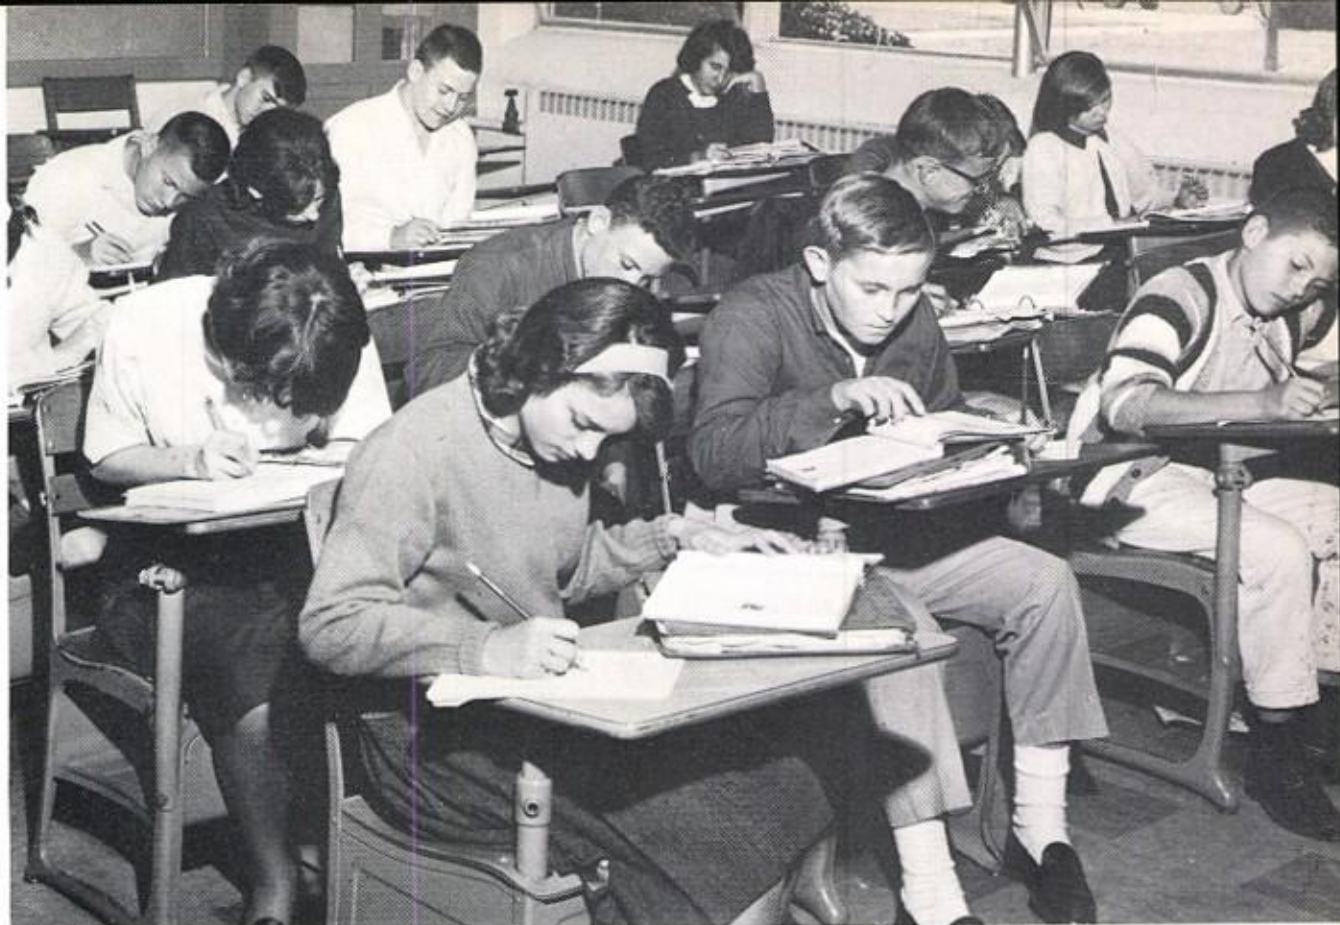

WORLD HISTORY. Geography is important in a study of history. Phil Phillips and Corinne Mears study maps with Mr. Oakley.

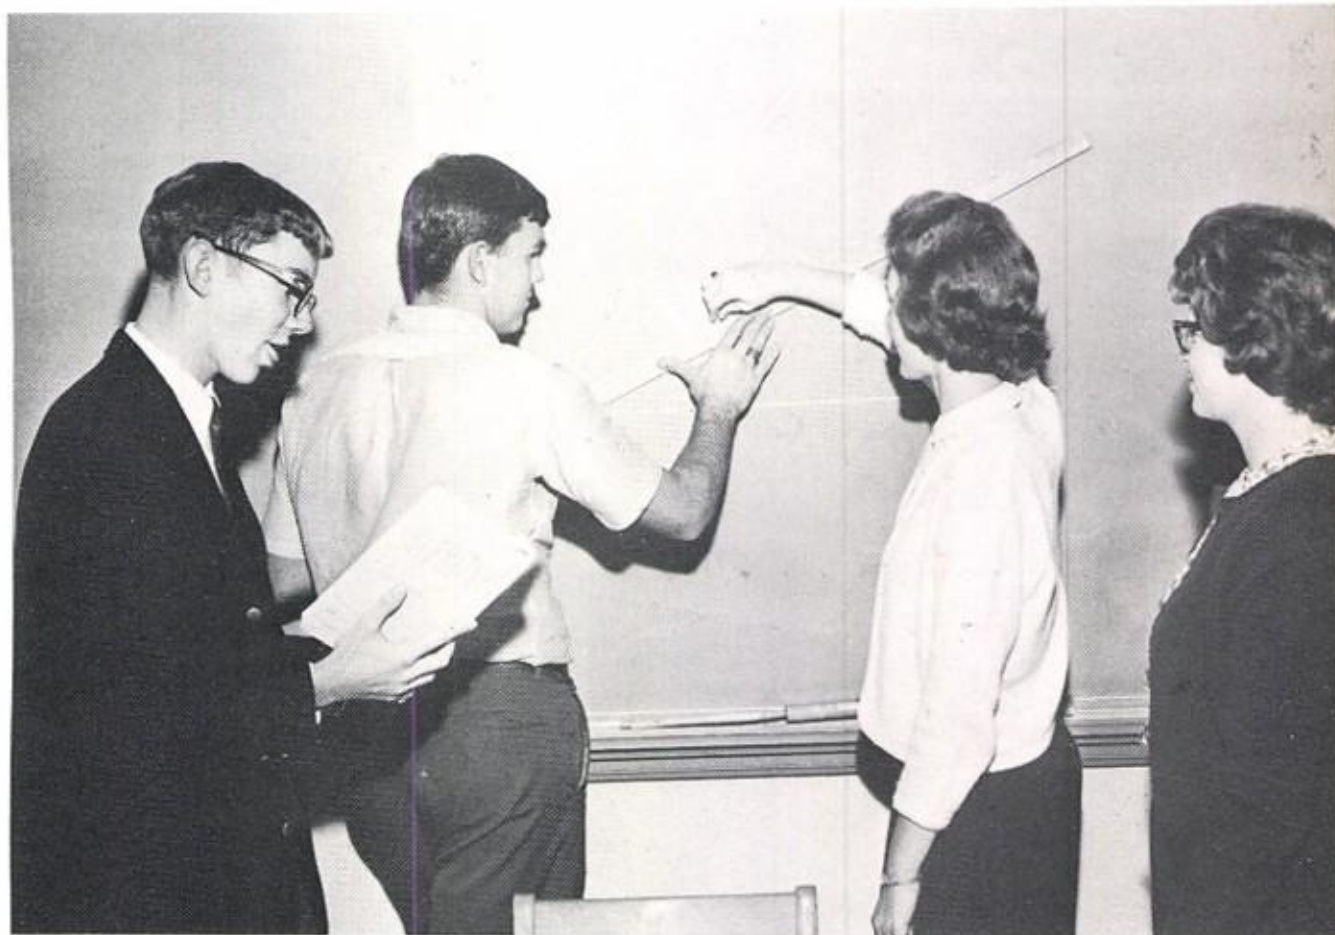

THE SPOKEN WORD. Steve Bell, Bub Shreaves, Bridgitte Hurtt, Jimmy Henderson, Cary Goffigan, and other first year French students learn as they listen to French spoken by a native Frenchman.

GENERAL MATHEMATICS I. Individual practice is important in learning new skills. Eighth grade students work with new mathematic concepts.

GEOMETRY. Mrs. Klein observes as Lyn Butler, Bess Custis, and J. T. Mapp construct the bisector of an angle.

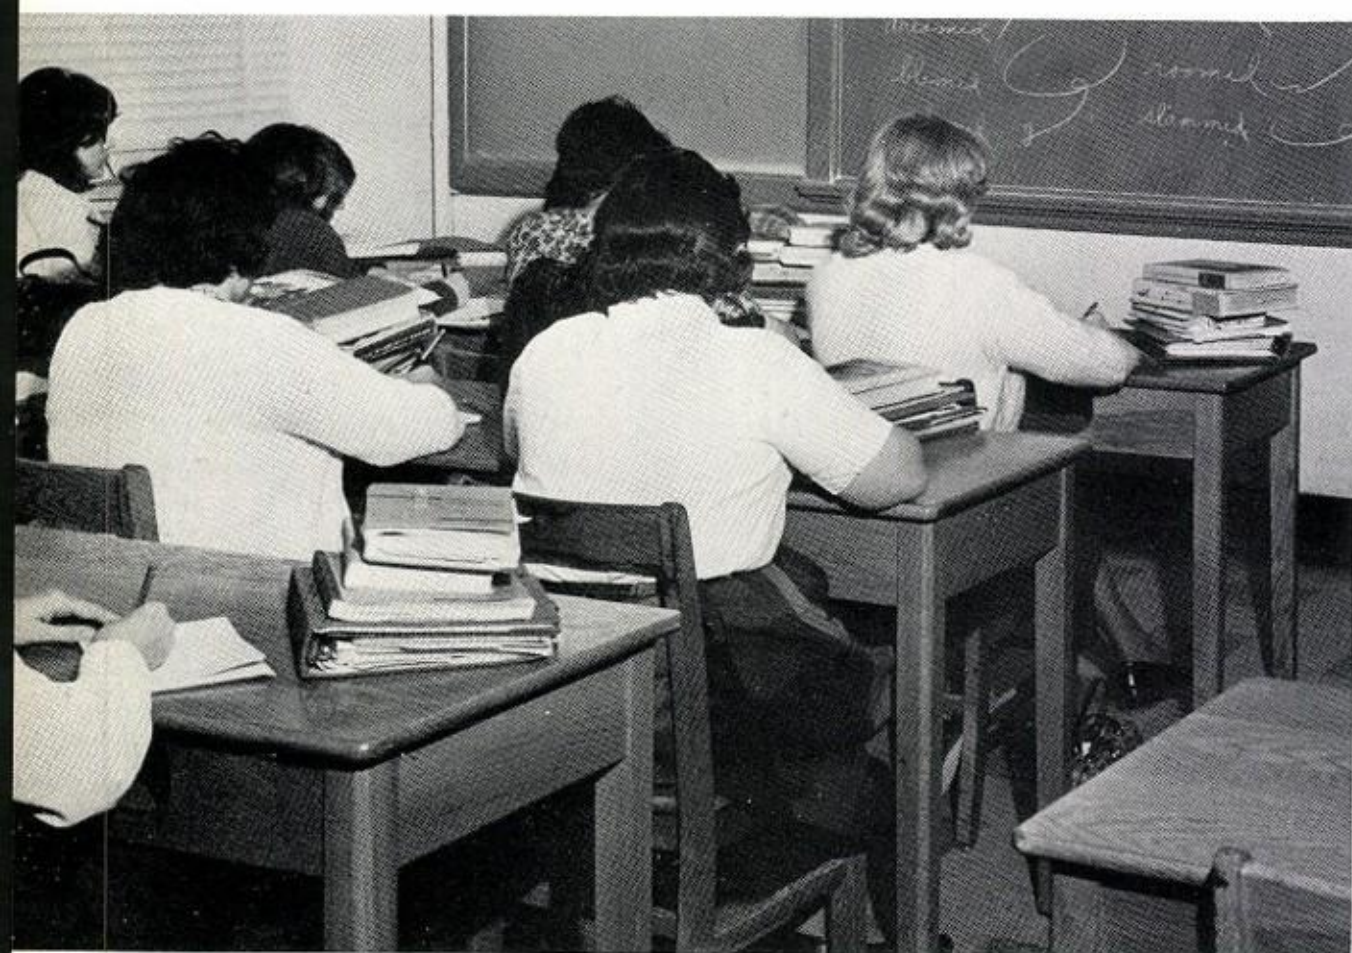

BIOLOGY. Mr. Turner demonstrates the kymograph, an instrument which will record heart beats, to 10th grade students, Jimmy Stewart, Myron Marsh, and Patricia Tankard.

DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION. Student workers employed in the bookstore gain experience while helping fellow students by providing merchandise information and assisting them with the proper selection. Albert Mason, Gary West, and Jim Wood serve Jim Partin.

OUTLINE PRACTICE. "The blended characters md and mt should be struck upward and fill the line. Practice each outline until you can write the word easily. Be sure the md stroke is long--the width of the line!" Future stenographers practice their outlines.

BOOKKEEPING. "My trial balance won't balance. Does yours?" Mrs. Addison assists Wanda Williams as Faye Daffin, Joan Bell, and Billy Rayfield solve problems.

ART. Marilyn Hargis and John Rippon work on ceramics project as part of their second year art course.

SYMPHONIC BAND. The Northampton High School Band meets as a regularly scheduled class five periods a week. This year the Band has twelve woodwinds, five saxophone, fourteen brass, and three percussion instrumentalists. The Northampton High School Band officers are

President:	Bobby Lewis
Vice-Pres.:	Keith Burton
Secretary:	Bonnie Pusey
Treasurer:	Peggy Shreeves

TRIO. Three of the senior Band members, Keith Burton, Peggy Shreeves, and Bobby Lewis, compose the French horn section of the Band.

GYMNASTICS. Students are exercising on the various pieces of apparatus in a physical education class. Pictured are the Side Horse, Horizontal Bar, Parallel Bar, Low Parallel Bar, and Balance Beam. Eighth grade students are oriented in the basic skills in tumbling and gymnastics.

HEALTH. Students learn about insect carriers of disease in the health course given as part of the Physical Education and Health program.

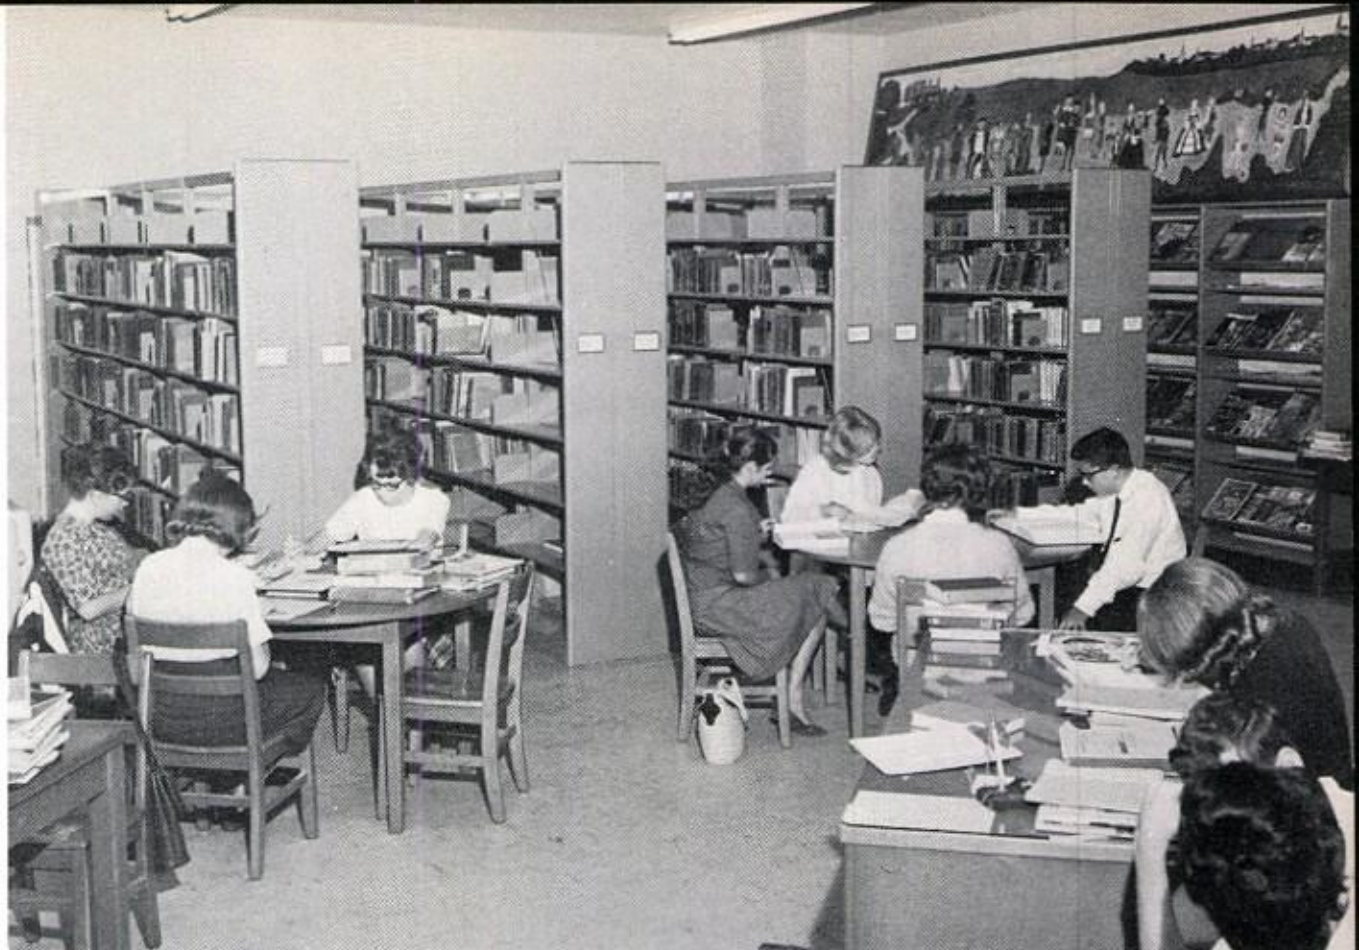

WOMEN DRIVERS! Dolores Bowen and Shirley Simpson learn that driving is not all fun. Hard work can enter the picture!

The Driver Education course is offered to students fifteen years of age and older who wish this training.

The National Beta Club, organized in January of 1934, is a non-secret, leadership club for high school students. The main purposes of the club are to promote the ideals of honesty, service, and leadership, and to reward students who have achieved the 91 average in their work. The club also urges high education for its members.

The Beta Club in Northampton High was organized in May of 1952 and is under regulation and supervision by the local school administration. The club has certain requirements which each member must meet.

NHS HAS QUILL AND SCROLL CHAPTER

Northampton High School was granted a charter of the Quill and Scroll Society, International Honorary Society for High School Journalists, in February 1964.

To be eligible for membership in the Quill and Scroll Society, students must qualify as follows:

1. They must be of at least junior or senior classification.
2. They must be in the upper third of their class in general scholarship standing.
3. They must have done superior work in some phase of journalism or school publication work, such as writing, editing, business management, or production.
4. They must be recommended by the supervisor or by the committee governing publications.
5. They must be approved by the Executive Secretary of the Society.

INITIATED. In April 1964 Elizabeth Windley, Hazel Revell, Faye Collins, and Randy Ward became members of Quill and Scroll.

NEWSPAPER CLUB ORGANIZED

The Newspaper Club, although it did not produce a publication, works on news articles and paper layout. With the knowledge and experience gained this year, it is hoped that Northampton High School will be able to have a school newspaper in the years to come.

THE PLAY'S THE THING

SELECTION. Catherine Leatherbury, Dixon Leatherbury, Sonny Kellam, and Nan Tankard review possible plays to be presented this year.

The Northampton High School Dramatics Club is responsible for the Christmas Pageant and other plays that it agrees to present during the school year.

Members of the club receive a knowledge of play writing, of the mechanics of producing plays, and of appearing before an audience.

PUBLIC SPEAKERS PREPARE

STATE DEBATERS. Senior, Francis Nottingham, junior, Mary Lucie Mapp, and tenth graders Reed Ennis and Donald Stine represented Northampton High School at the State Debate in Charlottesville. "The members did an outstanding job for such a young team," commented Mr. Kenneth Webb, Debate sponsor. With three returning state debaters and other qualified members, the outlook for this year is very promising.

The George B. Wynne Debating Society, named in honor of its founder and long-time sponsor, is a forensic club interested in national and international issues of current interest. Its purpose is to improve public speaking ability and to teach the techniques of effective debating.

Under the direction of their sponsor, Mr. Webb, and Mr. James, the members prepare for the state debate held annually in Charlottesville. Each member is encouraged to try out for the debating team, which will represent our school in state-wide competition. Last year our school was represented by the following members: Mary Lucie Mapp, Barbara Duer, Reed Ennis, Jay Whittington, Francis Nottingham, and Donald Stine.

Persons interested in public speaking or debating are welcome to join.

The 4-H Club is a voluntary organization for youth 10-19. Through club participation members learn cooperation, leadership, and traits for developing into useful and desirable citizens. The democratic process is carried out through committees, in business sessions at club meetings and in every phase of 4-H. Interest in and appreciation of their school, church, and community is encouraged so that they may become effective family members and outstanding participating citizens.

TRAINING FOR THE JOB

The Northampton Distributive Education Club combines classroom instruction and club projects for the benefit of the community, school, and student, by providing students with an opportunity to participate in group activities and compete with youth who have similar interests and career objectives.

The general purpose of the Rocket Club, formed in the latter part of 1962-1963 school year, is to promote the education of students interested in model rocketry and to increase their understanding of satellites and rockets. Through the club, students learn to build and launch rockets of their own.

NEW CHORAL GROUP

The Choral Music Club was organized this year to provide more music experiences for as many students as possible. Programs have included folk, secular, and sacred music.

The group is divided into three sections: soprano, alto, and tenor and bass.

I'm back again to write a little more. I can't wait until your bedspread gets dirty, again. I had a lot of fun last nite getting sand all over me. You're such a cutie but you know it. I can't wait until tomorrow - I get prettier and prettier everyday. Hey! Remember when ~~we~~ we went to the "Candlelight" and almost drove that man nuts!

Dublin,

This year is over, and next year we'll be Juniors, class rings, proms etc.!! Cape Charles has its advantages doesn't it, the bay and all the rides around!! I wonder who Jim Brown is!? The Teen Club sure is swingin' a bit it?

Classes have been fun: Biology, Gym, English and Home Ec!! Mr. Turner is a great teacher, even though we sometimes get words!! Mrs. Skeen is going to catch us this year in the shower room - remember?? English the difference in RC comes through! — no one will ever know what's going to happen next!!

Henry

Debby,

Take it easy over the summer and don't break to many Cape
Charles boys heart.

Maybe we will have study hall next year

If so look out teachers.

Lots of luck,

Johnny Downing

Well, another year is almost over, and I think we have really raised a lot of good times. Ha, you thought I was giving you something else didn't I? Boy, I really enjoyed having you this summer.
Maybe it will be the same in next year. I sure hope you and make out alright very well, but what I've don't know him, and what you must see a real neat boy.
I hope you have a real swell time at Cape Charles prom, and that after its over you'll tell me all about it. Again, it was real swell having all my classes with you. Always stay as sweet and nice as you are right now and know you'll go along with me in life. Always that same sweet smile.

Friends always Charlotte Lee

P.S. Boy, when I get that jeep at home, boy we really have some swell times.
I'll come down this summer and kick you up.

Debby,

You know I disperse you and all that. Be a good little girl in school. Best of luck in the future (you'll need it!)

Cutie,
This year has really been great, hasn't it? It's been neat having classes with you, especially English. Boy, Mrs. Holland really gave everybody a good luck with Jim. When you're

Debbie,
Well the year has really been a progressive one for you (Jim) and I.
I hope it stays that way.
I don't see running off and getting married before you finish school. I guess by now you and Jim are going steady. Kiki! Well I'm not yet and maybe someday I'll think about it. Well I could write all day but Godd kill me. So have a nice summer and do get a little bit of trouble.
See you next year.

Dear Debbie,
I'm enjoyed having you as my friend this year. I hope we can carry over our friendship into next year. I'll be looking forward to it. I will always remember you and your English and of course I could never forget you. Be good and keep being sweet as you are and you'll be a James & Brown. Oh my God Bless you.

Debbie,
Well, what can I write? It's really been fun having English with you. I don't know how I'd pass if it wasn't for you. If you weren't so smart maybe you'd have more classes together - so get dumb - like me!
I hope I see you this summer a lot! Please don't do anything I wouldn't do! Tell Jim to be good to you 'cause I don't want anyone to hurt one of my sisters. I'll beat him up and I mean it. Well, I'm running out of things to say so I'll close by saying. Stay sweet and wonderful like you are now and you'll go far. Come see me

P.S.

Try to be good!

Love You
Maggie

I had a mixed up night I came home. I didn't skip a beat. I really wish we could have plenty good reasons why not. I suppose there were we'll raise a little. I really wish we could have see at the cage. I really wish we could have there are. Well good luck to you.
 Bye, Bill.
 A friend always,

I'll pay back all your paper I've messed up writing Donald and drawing horses. Thanks for all the help you've given me when Donald and I have tought it's really been a lot of help at the beach and Cape Charles. I've seen you a lot and don't have any fights.
You can use Donald & I for an example.

Dear Debby, (Skag)

This year is really gone by fast. But we've done some pretty dumb things like every year. Always remember all the times we've laughed and cried together. There's been lots of mischief around this year and I think you, Peggy and I have gotten into all of it. Remember all the heartaches we've had, you got off lucky you haven't had many but I've surely had my share! There's been more good times which I'm thankful for. I think every year you get a little craver. Like - remember the other night when you were going to let me out at my house and you forgot and went zooming by! Oh Boy, your slipping. Remember before you started going with Jimmy - I especially remember one day when you saw Jim you asked him if he wanted to follow us around. Oh Boy we were sure dumb then. But look where it got you. Don't you love this different colored ink. Remember all the flames we've had in the last 2 or 3 years. It's been mostly Jim for you this year but I've had my share of them. No, your right I'll never forget all the good times I've had with Jeffrey and Edwin, but most of all Bob. I hope it last as long as it can. Because I love Bob so much but it would be nice if he loved me only half as much as I love him. If he ever read this I'd probably die. He'd laugh I know he would. Won't I look cute as a fool! We'll stay sweet and be good.

P.S.
Don't forget mom.

Love the one and only,

Carol

I Hope I'm a PRISM in a Paper Plant

Dear Debby,

We've nearly completed another year at good ole N.H.S. Maybe one of these days we'll both finish. Our eighth and ninth grade years were pretty good but I've enjoyed this one the most. If things work out okay the next two will be just as much fun I'm sure. We've really gotten to know each other this year, having all our classes together and staying with each other. The teachers usually always end up moving us because all we do is talk. Oh well, I guess we can't help it!

You, Carol, and I have really nearly lived together. We've had some great times that I know I'll never be able to forget, double dating, going to the teen club, and just raising "heck"! Never forget all the times we've double-dated. When we did something usually happened, the car broke down, we had a flat tire, or some kind of accident. I wonder what will happen next? Nothing I hope! I guess everyone has their share of bad luck sometimes. We really had fun at the beach last summer, but one person had entered your life then. It was still fun though. Remember the time when you and I went riding with Jeffrey, Claude, Junie. That was the first time we ever really felt good that night. It was depressing until then. The times you've stayed with me have been fun too, especially when it snowed and Jimmy and Jim came up. Black-outs. They can't be forgotten. All we did was practice, one night we left early because we wanted to go out. I was glad to get out of there that night. I can't even start writing about all the things we've done. They're incalculable. I can't say they've all been good because sometimes they have been a little depressing to both of us. Like the night we had to go to Belle Haven movies and after we got back from Salisbury that Saturday.

I'll never forget all the days you'd come up to me and tell me you'd talk to Jimmy. I was always so glad to hear that. Jimmy and I have had a few spats but I guess we can't help it. Never forget the time I wanted him to change and when we went in town with Stephens car. Those are the days we should forget but somehow they always seem to stick with you.
